Air Cadets Thanked For Christmas Gifts

As part of their Christmas celebration members of 588 and 592 Canadair Air Cadet squadrons were asked if they would like to contribute something to brighten the day for those less fortunate than themselves. A tree was set up in the plant 1 cafeteria where those attending the annual Air Cadet Christmas dinner could deposit their gifts.

The response was overwhelming, with more than 200 boys bringing presents for Christmas Day distribution.

The following letter to Canadair from the grey Nuns of Creche d'Youville speaks for itself in it lust rating the old philosophy that it is better to give than to receive.

Please accept our sincerest thanks for your kind visit to our Institution and allow us to say what a great comfort it is to us in our work to meet sympathetic and understanding benefactors who enjoy assisting some of the unfortunates of this world whom we are privileged to have under our care.

Your many gifts brought much joy to the children, smiles of contentment and shouts of glee.

In their daily prayers, the children always remember their benefactors and we are sure that God must bless those who are instrumental in bringing happiness to the least of His little ones. Thus, in their names as well as in the names of Sister Superior and all the Sisters, we wish to extend our sincere thanks to the Air Cadets for their important contribution.

"To ALL, our best wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year."

TRADTTION MAINTAINED — It is customary for the rank and file of the RCAF to be served Christmas dinner by the officers of the squadron or unit. In line with that tradition, officers of Nos. 588 and 592 Canadair Air Cadet squadrons did the honours when the boys had their Yuletide dinner in the plant 1 cafeteria. Seen here, are Roni Connolly, 588 squadron secretary, holding the tray while Squadron Leader John Barnes, officer commanding No. 592 squadron, and Squadron Leader Eric Simms, o/c 588 squadron, serve the food. The boys loved the service. The officer's ladies performed yeoman service carrying the food from the serving counters. The CERA Variety show under the direction of Jack Graham and M.C.'d by John Agnew provided first class entertainment for the cadets
