

THE STANDARD STAR, NEW ROCHELLE, NY FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1963

SNAPPY MARCHING in the Memorial Day parade was the Royal Canadian Air Cadets, visitors in New Rochelle at the invitation of the Civil Air Patrol. The cadets are billeted at Fort Slocum. They have been guests at a Beach and Tennis Club dance, Wednesday night, and a reception and dance Thursday night at the Naval Armory. Today they are touring Idlewild Airport though arrangements with the Port of New York Authority, will take a shopping tour of New York City this afternoon will visit Freedomland tonight. The contingent returns tomorrow morning to Montreal —Staff Photo by John Sarno

BARBECUE PARTIES blossomed out all over New Rochelle Thursday for the visiting contingent of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets who are guests of the New Rochelle Civil Air Patrol again this year for the memorial Day holiday, having Participated in yesterday's parade. Part of the Croup is pictured above at a party at the home of Louis Wolff, 7 Lawrence Place, executive officer the New Rochelle CAP, shown

fourth from left, next the Canadian Wing Commander, Eric Simms, serving some of his men—Staff Photo by John Sarno

BEACH AND TENNIS Club dance Wednesday night saw a group of the visiting Royal Canadian Air Cadets, here at the invitation of the Civil Air Patrol for the Memorial Day holiday weekend, as special guests of the club members. Pictured left to right are Lt. Eric Litt and Major Louis D. Wolff, both CAP officers here; Mrs. Milton Fields, of Yonkers, a new member of Beach and Tennis; Canadian Wing Commander, Eric E. Simms and Squadron Commander Harry Johnson--Photo by Gus Wartell.