

Second Call To Join Canadair's Air Cadets

Commanding Officer F/L Eric Simms of the newly formed Canadair Squadron of the Air Cadet League of Canada announces that Saturday May 8th, is recruiting day for sons of Canadair employees.

Upon going to press we learn that 70 boys have applied for membership in the Squadron. Within the next few days these boys will receive a letter telling them to report to the Security Officer at Reception, Main Building, Plant 2 between the hours of 10 am to 4 pm, on Saturday May 8th.

In case some parents failed to send in the required application form re produced in the March issue of the News, a repeat form is printed below. Act now, if your boy has turned 14 or hasn't reached the age of 18, fill in the application.

No Boy Should Miss — On This

With the many facilities of Canadair's largest aircraft manufacturer available, with the chance to train under the best instructors to be found anywhere, with the possibility of finding a career that might lead to a future in the RCAF or to a civilian aviation job, NO boy should miss this opportunity of joining Canadair's Air Cadet Squadron.
